

International Construction Contracts – 5 to 8 years' experience

We are looking for a lawyer (3–8 years' experience) with proven experience in international and industrial construction contracts.

You will have the opportunity to work on exciting cases and to further develop your expertise, in close collaboration with colleagues in Antwerp and Brussels.

Profile

- You hold a Master's degree in Law from a Belgian university.
- You are a native Dutch speaker and have a good command of English, both written and spoken, as well as at least a basic knowledge of French.
- You have 5 to 8 years' experience in construction law and (inter)national and industrial construction contracts.
- You have a thorough knowledge of construction contracts used in such projects (knowledge of FIDIC and/or NEC contracts is an advantage).
- You possess good communication skills and can be assertive when necessary.
- You are client-focused, pragmatic and capable of managing cases independently.
- You are a true team player and keen to mentor junior colleagues.

Tasks and responsibilities

- You will be responsible for drafting, reviewing and negotiating construction contracts for (inter)national and industrial projects (based on FIDIC, NEC and contract templates inspired by these).
- You will assist clients in disputes arising from such construction projects, both in and out of court.
- You will advise clients throughout the entire lifecycle of such construction projects, covering the pre-construction phase, during project execution and post-completion.
- You will work independently on complex cases and mentor junior colleagues where necessary.
- You will contribute to the further development of the practice group, including through knowledge-sharing and internal and external legal training.

Offer

We offer a stimulating working environment with engaging and varied cases. In addition, we provide a comprehensive range of internal training opportunities, such as coaching, seminars and courses, to support your professional development.

Naturally, this also includes an attractive remuneration package.
